

MAKADI RESORT. LUXURIOUS COMPLEX ON RED SEA RIVIERA

MAKADI RESORT. LUXURIOUS COMPLEX ON RED SEA RIVIERA - Makadi is a new mixed use development over a vast area of 3.7 Million M² located in Makadi Bay along Egypt's Beautiful Red Sea Riviera. This development will have everything on site from schools and hospitals to shopping and entertainment.

This large project is being developed in 4 phases on a land mass of 3.75 Million m². The project will feature different phases of apartments and villas as well as hotels and other touristic projects. A low density development policy applies on this site and only 20% of the land will be developed on.

Makadi is both a tourist & residential area & the resort will have its own hotel, schools, hospital, shopping mall, playgrounds & sports facilities as well as a transport system. It will be a resort in its own right with all the facilities needed for a relaxing holiday or way of life, all meticulously planned with great attention to detail.

Makadi Bay is located just 30 KM south of the mega-resort of Hurghada. With a wide range of luxury hotels and projects for a wide range of budgets, the bay a string of high-quality beachside hotels and developments with crystal clear waters and ultimate strip of white sand just a few steps from your luxury accommodation.
